

FLORIDA DESIGN'S

MIAMI

HOME & DECOR

SIMPLY MODERN

THE SEASON
FOR ART

$5.99 74>

0 70989 36924 5

Volume 3 number 3

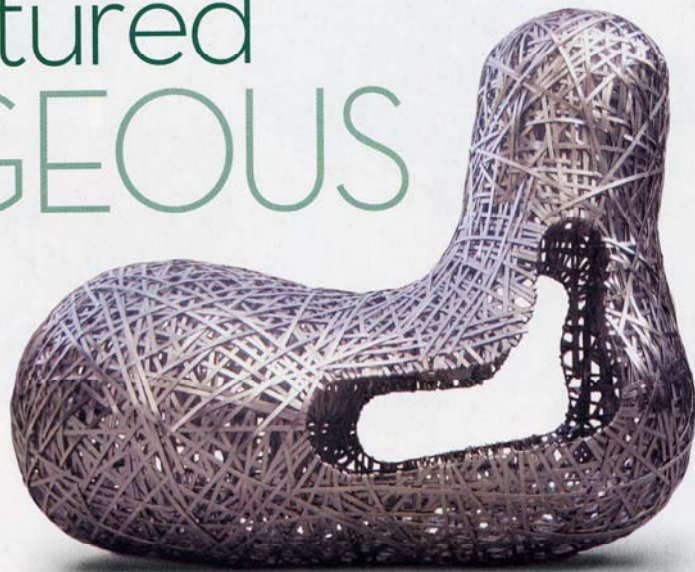

miscellany

SMART DESIGNS
REFLECT THE MOODS
OF TODAY AND THE INSPIRATIONS OF
THE FUTURE

Good Natured GORGEOUS

TEXT Kim Mosley

▲ “Lulu,” woven rattan armchair by Kenneth Cobonpue for JANUS et Cie. www.janusetcie.com

Who says green can't be beautiful? Putting a quirky and sleek spin on reuse, refurbish and recycle is what is in the air. It is the mood of the times.

The new art of design marries earth's natural landscape with technological innovations. Original one-of-a-kind pieces are created and eclectic vintage styles refashioned into contemporary conversation-starters with reprocessed

▲ “Norm 06,” top, is a playfully pert sculptural light fixture with its own collapsible expression. www.normann-copenhagen.com

▲ PIE's aluminum “Steel Tongue” chair is handcrafted and designed to imitate nature. www.projectimportexport.com

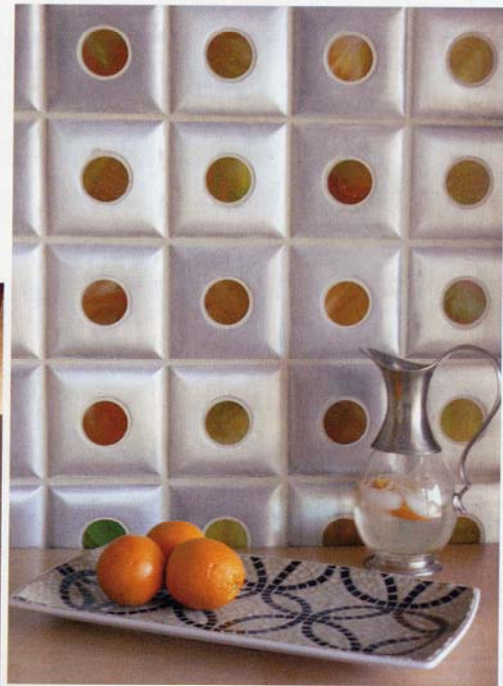

continued
GOOD NATURED...

◀ Made of recycled polyester, Kravet Green is a decorative eco-friendly collection of fabrics. www.kravet.com

Sun, sea and sand inspire the subdued tones of the Eames chairs by Herman Miller. www.hermanmiller.com ▼

STYLE AND SUBSTANCE
COLOR THE ART OF DESIGN ONE
SHADE AT A TIME.

▲ Designed for Ann Sacks by Erin Adams, "Luna" is an eco-friendly glass and recycled-aluminum tile. www.annsacks.com

◀ "Neopolitan" flooring from Alterna made of bamboo strand. Photo by Walter Lockwood, courtesy of Smith & Fong Plyboo. www.alternacorp.com

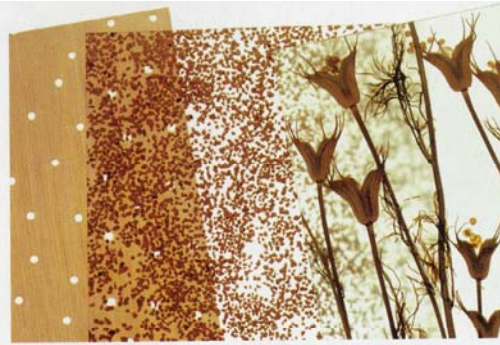

continued
GOOD NATURED...

▲ The "Nito" floor lamp from NY Loft combines woven materials with Asian style. www.nyloft.net

▲ Veritas' laminate surfacing, top right, made of eco-friendly resin panels. www.veritasideas.com

"Cortiça" chaise by Daniel Michalik for Branch, made of pure cork. www.branchhome.com and recyclable materials that include glass, acrylic, aluminum and reclaimed wood.

From architecture to accessories, earth-friendly aesthetics and practical use mingle in an environment that inhabits the contemporary house and interprets the most recent trends of design with cosmopolitan spirit. ■

▲ Ornare transforms the beauty of raw sustainable materials into intelligent solutions for wardrobes, closets and wall units. www.ornare.com